This is to Certify that Samuel McCulloch Jr. has appeared before us the Board of Land Commissioners for the County of Jackson and proved according to Law that he was a member of Capt George Collinsworths Company at the taking of Goliad in the year 1835 and that he was permanently disabled by a wound in the Shoulder and that said wound incapacitates him for bodily labor as appears from a Certificate from Walter Fosdale M. D. assistant Surgion Gen! U.S. and that under an act of Congress approved Dec. 18th 1837 making provision for persons who have been permanently disabled in the Service of Texas he is entitled to one League of land as a testimony of the gratitude of this Republic to be surveyed now by the Law gives him the six months preference
